Reconciling our economic, ecological, and social responsibilities in a sustainable way is the objective of ATAKORA.

In this, we see ourselves as equal partners in our business relationships. Our association with our business partners is based on cooperation and characterised by mutual respect.

This Code of Conduct sets forth ATAKORA’s fundamental requirements of its partners, service providers and suppliers, including all their affiliated companies, as well as their subcontractors (hereafter referred to as “Business Partners”). Partners, service providers and suppliers of non-merchandise goods to ATAKORA are required to inform their affiliated companies, their subcontractors and employees about ATAKORA’s Code of Conduct and to ensure adherence to it at every workplace at which services and final processing of products for ATAKORA are rendered.

The following principles are consistent with internationally applicable standards, such as the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and applicable Conventions of the ILO, as well as legislation in the respective country.

1. Legal compliance

ATAKORA requires all of its Business Partners to comply with all applicable legislation. The requirements of ATAKORA set forth in this Code of Conduct may also exceed the applicable legal requirements in the respective country. Should any ATAKORA requirement contravene legal provisions of the respective country, the Business Partner must inform ATAKORA about this.

2. Child labour / young employees (ILO Conventions 138 and 182 and UN Convention on the Rights of the Child)

No persons may be employed who are younger than the legally required minimum age for employment in the relevant country. Business Partners are required to take the necessary measures to prevent the employment of persons below the legal minimum age. The minimum age to permit employment must not be below the age at which compulsory education ends and in no case under the age of 15 years. Subject to the exemptions granted under ILO, national regulations designed to protect children and employed youths must be observed. Children must be protected from economic exploitation, the carrying out of work that is dangerous, that negatively impacts on the child’s education or that could endanger the health or physical, mental, intellectual, moral or social development of the child.
